AFIDAVIT

I hereby truthfully state the following facts of enemy atrocities which I personally witnessed:

LU, Pen Shan, was a postman at Mo Lo Post Office, in Shensi Province. On 12 August 1940 several Japanese soldiers caught him while he was going to duty. They threw him into a cell. He was given no food and died of starvation in consequence.

The above statement contains facts free from falsehood. If the enemy atrocities stated above be eventually brought to trial in a court of law, I am willing to appear either as an accuser or as a witness and to undergo punishment for any malicious accusation or false testimony.
